How our landscape has changed!

The hills of the today very well known San Roque Golf Club. Here the three sisters Berta, Pilar and Elena Castilla would enjoy afternoon gatherings with family and friends.

Wine of the month

Cloe White, Chardonnay Barrica

A bright and brilliant yellow colour with hints of gold with intense fruit and citrus undertones, with notes of tropical fruits on a bed of pine and hazelnuts. An elegant wine, rich in sensations. A very special white wine. This Delicious wine from Ronda marries beautifully with our colourful Thai fusion dishes.

Royal Calpe Hunt, Mesas del Diente ...today known as San Roque Club

Sotogrande was one of the plots of land owned by our family, known to the family as Paniagua, it was sold before the Civil war and its name was changed from Paniagua to Sotogrande in 1959. Sotogrande as its name indicates was a large piece of flat land where our great grand parents grew among other things, rice. The next part of the Land to be sold was Mesas del Diente now known as San Roque Club. In this part of the land our family would invite The Royal Calpe Hunt during hunting season. Now a days hunting on our property is not allowed as the family dedicate the land to cattle breeding and farming.
